

Tectonic Shifts in Banking & Financial Services

The 37th Annual Conference of the Banking & Financial Services Law Association

Friday 27 August • Virtual Online Platform

We are looking forward to welcoming all registered delegates to this year's BFSLA Conference on Friday 27 August 2021.

All delegates will now participate via the virtual online platform. This week (Tuesday 24 August) you will receive an email with the log-in details for the virtual platform. Please ensure you log-in in advance to test the platform.

The virtual online platform allows you to view the speakers, see the presentations and have access to the conference papers. You will also be able to ask questions via the Q&A functionality and connect with other delegates via the Chat feature. You will additionally be able to view the New Zealand session on The Financial Sector (Climate-related Disclosures and Other Matters) Amendment Bill if you don't mind the early start and the last Australian session The New Quantum Theory: Statutory Unconscionable Conduct Post-Kobelt which is scheduled for 4:15pm AEST / 6:15pm NZ.

We have carefully planned to ensure that we can hold a fantastic conference even with the uncertainty that COVID brings. We have speakers from across Australia and New Zealand (and even the UK!) who will be presenting so you'll still be able to hear from the leading experts regardless of where you're located.

Registration

If you haven't yet done so, you can register for the conference here. Please contact Julia if you have any questions about the conference format.

In the meantime, take care and stay safe and I look forward to welcoming you to the BFSLA's 37th annual conference.

Best regards

Rebecca Hope
